

October 20, 2004

Holy Family, St. Francis make the grade

GLENDALE — Two of California's three best Roman Catholic schools are in the foothills.

Holy Family High School, an all-girls open-enrollment Catholic school in Glendale, and St. Francis High School, an all-boys selective-enrollment Franciscan school in La Cañada Flintridge, were both selected for the top 50 list of schools from across the country. The Acton Institute for the Study of Religion and Liberty compiles the Catholic High School Honor Roll. For a complete list of schools, log on to <http://www.chshonor.org> .

Darleene Barrientos