Thursday, September 08, 2005

Bishop Luers High School has been named to the Catholic High School Honor Roll, a project of the Grand Rapids, Mich.-based Acton Institute for the Study of Religion and Liberty, an international research and educational organization.

Bishop Luers was chosen as one of the 50 best schools among the 250 that applied to be included in the list. Selection is based on academics, Catholic identity and civic education.

Marian High School in Mishawaka was also named to the list, and both schools were recognized for civic education.
