

Holy Family one of best in the country

(Published: September 26, 2005)

The Catholic High School Honor Roll recognized Glendale's Holy Family High School as one of the 50 best secondary schools in the country.

Holy Family High is an all-girls high school run by the Sisters of Charity of the Blessed Virgin Mary and is a repeat honoree from last year.

The school is also a repeat-category leader for its civic education, Honor Roll officials said.

The primary goal of the Honor Roll is to encourage schools to educate students as effectively as possible, integrating the Catholic faith and preparing students for active engagement with the world.

Strength in academics, Catholic identity and civic education is key to winning a spot on the Honor Roll.