

Grand Rapids Catholic Central High School selected to honor roll again

(Grand Rapids, October 17, 2005, 2:23 p.m.) Grand Rapids Catholic Central High School has been recognized as one of the best Catholic schools in the country.

Catholic Central was selected as part of the Catholic High School Honor Roll for the second year in a row.

The Acton Institute for the Study of Religion and Liberty created the honor roll, which recognizes the top 50 Catholic high schools in the country, based on academics, religious identity and civic education.
